If extended vacations are taken, please advise management. Tenant shall not assign or sublet this agreement or any part of the premises.
- 8. REPONSIBILTY OF OWNER: Landlord or his agent reserves all statutory rights of entry upon the premises for lawful purposes.
- 9. OTHER RULES & REGULATIONS: Tenant agrees to be bound by all existing rules and regulations and all additional responsibilities which may, from time to time, be adopted by Owner or Agent and same shall be considered to be conditions of this Agreement. Rental checks are to be made payable to L & R Partnership, LLC and mailed or delivered to 2422 N. Nye Ave., #102. Fremont, Ne 68025. Rents are due on the first of each month and are deemed late if received later than midnight the 7th of each month. Rents received after the 7th will be charged $5.00 per day late charge from the first of the month. Example: Rent received on the 10th would have a $50.00 late charge. Tenant agrees to pay Owner a service charge of $25.00 for each insufficient funds or returned check or otherwise. In the event that the monthly rental is paid by a check returned by the bank unpaid, then and in that event, Agent shall have the right to demand that the monthly rental payments for the following three (3) monthly periods be paid in cash, by certified check, or money order. Failure of Owner or Agent to enforce any terms of this lease shall not be determined to be a waiver nor shall any acceptance of a partial payment be determined a waiver of the right to collect the full amount of rent.
- 10. RENEWAL OR TERMINATION: At the end of this lease period, this agreement is automatically renewed from month to month but may be terminated at any time by either party on giving a full 30-day notice of intent to terminate from date rent is due, WHICH IS DUE THE FIRST OF EACH MONTH. If after such notice of 30 days is given and tenant fails to vacate on or before the termination date, the rental for any holdover period will be double the normal rental amount and tenant shall be liable for any other damages which Owner may suffer through loss of perspective tenant. If 30-day notice is not given by Tenant, Owner shall have the right to show the premises to prospective tenants or buyers at any reasonable time after the Owner or Agent becomes aware that the premises will be available for lease. If tenant moves out without giving the required full months notice from the day rent is due (1st of each month), owner has the right to retain at least the amount of the deposit in part payment of damages for such violation.
- 11. OCCUPANCY PERMIT FOR FREMONT PROPERTIES: If the above referenced rental unit is located within the city limits of Fremont, Nebraska, a condition of this lease is that each occupant of the unit 18 years of age or older shall provide landlord a copy of an Occupancy Permit in their name issued by the City of Fremont under Ordinance 5165 prior to occupancy. Failure to do so will subject said occupant to a 14-Day Notice of Default for violation of lease under Nebraska Statute §76-1431 wherein occupant will be given 14 days to cure such violation, and upon occupant's failure to do so within the specified 14 days the lease will terminate and landlord entitled to repossession of the premises 30 days after the 14-day notice was given.
- SERVICE ANIMALS: A service or emotional support animal is not subject to a security deposit and is allowed, but only such service or support animal for which the Tenant gives prior notice to Landlord prior to bringing the service or support animal onto the premises, and solely on condition that Tenant provide a written request letter from a licensed Nebraska physician or a licensed Nebraska mental health care provider certifying the need of the Tenant for such service or support animal. Landlord is authorized to verify the authenticity of such request letter. Assuming the forgoing occurs, service or support animal (hereafter "animal") may only remain on the premises if the animal does not disturb the peace and guiet enjoyment of the neighbors and all litter and feces created by the animal outside the building is promptly picked up and disposed of in an outside trash receptacle. Tenant must pay for any damage to person or property caused by animal. Animal must remain on leash outside tenant's apartment living space and under no circumstances may tenant leave animal unattended outside, and never left unattended tied to a tree or other structure. Under no circumstances is animal allowed in pool or fenced in pool area due to risk of pool contamination. The specific type of animal must be permissible under local or state rules, and all vaccination and licensing regulations complied with, and regardless tenant must provide proof the animal has been vaccinated against rabies. No breeding of animal is allowed whatsoever. Only one service or support animal is allowed per tenant. Failure of Tenant to comply with the terms of this paragraph shall be deemed a material breach of the lease entitling Landlord to declare the lease terminated and entitling Landlord to deliver a 3-Day Notice to Quit under the Forcible Entry and Detainer Act as a holdover trespasser unlawfully occupying the premises; or, alternatively, the Landlord may provide written notice that the Tenant shall have 14 days to cure the breach or be evicted at the expiration of 30 days.
